

INVITATION TO WEEKEND WORKSHOP

in beautiful, clean natural environment of Swedish Jämtland
August 30-31, 2014 in Vedjeön - Strömsund

During this exciting weekend you will learn why it is important to supplement your dog's diet naturally and why. What herbs and wild flowers you can safely pick yourself in the nature, about their nutritional values and how to use them for your pet. We will talk about natural, healthy pet nutrition and how it protects your dog's health and you will get a chance to get a feeding program composed specially for your dog, together with lots of useful information and advice on natural nutrition and health care. You will also learn about holistic veterinary medicine and natural methods that can help improve your pet's health. And that's not all! If you come with your dog, you will get an acupuncture treatment for him or her by a specialized holistic veterinarian. This is a very special offer!

All of this is waiting for you, together with a pleasant time spent in a beautiful nature, including grilling and socializing evening, and you can bring your four legged friend with you!

Program:

We will start with lectures about natural, holistic medicine and nutrition for animals. Dr. Lenka Novobilska, DVM, specializes in Chinese Medicine and will not only talk about it, but will demonstrate acupuncture and will give you tips how you can work with your dog at home to maintain his good health and prevent problems. A very special treat for all of the workshop's attendees is Dr. Lenka's generous offer to give your dog an acupuncture treatment during the workshop. Her lecture will be held in Swedish.

Animal nutritionist and dog breeder Katerina Paleckova will talk about her experience with natural nutrition supplements for dogs, share success stories of her dogs with natural health care methods and show you which herbs can be daily used in your dog's diet for keeping them healthy and vital. We will pick the herbs and wild flowers together and you can take them home to start using in your furry friend's feeding program. Katerina's program will be held in English and Swedish.

We have also prepared articles, recipes and other useful materials on natural animal health for you. And it will be possible to buy special herbs, spices and other natural supplements for your pets on place, together with an e-book „Feeding Your Pets The Natural Way“, for a discounted price.

You will have a chance to take your dogs for a walk on lovely trails in the forest or to the nearby lake and island and during the Saturday evening grilling there will be time to socialize together, share our experiences, and talk dogs :)
